Introduces Our Exclusive, FREE In-home Warranty Program

If you're looking for the very best lift chair quality and support, choose UltraComfort America!

We are a new division of the world's largest lift chair manufacturer. We know lift chairs and that's why we offer your customers the very best lift and recline chair warranty in the industry! And it gets even better!

We've made doing business with us easy with our exclusive, one-year in-home warranty service program.

All it takes is one phone call to our warranty service department and we take care of the rest with quality, FREE in-home service.

UltraComfort America backs all of our products with the best warranties in the industry. Although we do not expect you to have any repair issues with our products, should an issue arise, UltraComfort has you covered. In most instances, you will be able to diagnose an issue over the phone, saving you valuable time and money. UltraComfort repairs will take less time, and on average you will be reimbursed more money for these repairs.
